HISTORY OF A WEEK.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS OF THE WORLD.

News of Crimes and Criminals, Accidents, Fires, Etc., from North, South, East and West, Sanitized with Minor Affairs.

Football Player Killed.

In a football game at the Normal Park school grounds, Chicago, Edward Gillett, aged 16, was seriously injured that he died in a few hours. According to the story told by the boys who were playing with him at the time, Gillett, who had been the ball, slipped and fell as he was trying to make a dash around the end. All the players pulled on him and the opposition endeavored to get the pigskin away from him. Gillett held on to the ball and shouted that he was injured. He attempted to raise but failed. It was found that he was suffering from internal injuries. After reaching home he became unconscious and died.

Terrible Sea Disaster.

Halifax (N.S.) special. The worst marine disaster in the long list of steamers wrecked among the rocks and shoals at the entrance to the Bay of Fundy occurred Monday when the side-wheel steamer City of Monticello, bound from St. John's for Yarmouth, was overwhelmed by the monstrous sea only forty miles from her destination and engulfed, with thirty-four passengers and crew. A heavy gale was raging at the time and there was a tremendous swell. Twelve bodies of the victims of the disaster have been removed from the sea, which is still raging with terrific fury.

Blitzed by Fire.

Upwards of seventy-five houses have been destroyed by fire at Biloxi, Miss., well known summer resort and business center on the Mississippi sound, eighty miles from New Orleans. The small fire department was powerless to stay the flames and many houses were torn down to check the spread of the conflagration. The Catholic church, convent and schools newspaper offices, many business houses and residences have been consumed. The fire was still burning furiously at daybreak. Hundreds have been rendered homeless. The losses will probably exceed $300,000.

An Offer to Bryan.

William J. Bryan has been invited to become a citizen of Denver. A salary of $10,000 is held out as an inducement. Hundreds of the wealthiest men of Denver are willing to guarantee the payment of the money for as many years as Mr. Bryan will remain. At the instance of these citizens the editor of a Denver daily newspaper wired Mr. Bryan the ten-thousand dollar offer to become a member of its editorial staff.

Alaskan Railroad Project.

Tacoma (Wash.) special. R. O. Lister, just returned from Nome, claims to be backed by an English syndicate in the project to build a partially surveyed railroad from Granite Harbor to Connelly City, within the Gobi-Bay district, a distance of eighty-five miles. He says the route offers serious difficulties to construction.

Indians Are Starving.

Mrs. James Smith, just arrived at Tacoma, Wash., from Cook's Inlet, Alaska, says that fully half of the thousand Indians in that section are starving and that the influx of white prospectors has resulted in the killing of game and the Indians are thus deprived of food and furs for clothing.

Three Tramps Cremated.

The charred remains of three men were found in the ruins of a barn burned on the farm of Aaron Steiner, four miles east of Lima, Ohio. It is supposed the men were tramps who had been sleeping in the barn.

At Toronto, Ont., as a direct result of the demonstration in honor of the return of the Toronto soldiers of the South African contingent, three persons are dead.

VICTIM OF NICARAGUA LAW.

American Citizen's Tale of Arrest and Ill-treatment.

Hans Wehrli, a former resident of Chicago, now of Seymour, Texas, has reached New Orleans from Nicaragua with a thrilling story of arrest at the hands of the Nicaraguan authorities. In 1893, while in Salvador, Mr. Wehrli says, he accepted a draft from Henry Bachman of San Francisco drawn on John D. Spreckels for $1,700. When he reached Managua, the capital of Nicaragua, he placed the draft in the Bank of London. On Sept. 5 last Captain Wehrli returned to Nicaragua. He was seized and thrown into jail, where he was held for five days without a hearing on the ground that the Spreckels draft, seven years old, had come back protested. Judge Zelaya exonerated him of the charge proffered by the bank officials. Wehrli says the United States consul at Managua refused to assist him. Wehrli said: "I have strong cases against the officials of the Bank of London, Managua and I will push them. If I cannot prove them to be not guilty I will carry the case to Washington and the State Department there."

ELIOT ENDS IN DEATH.

W. J. Linn R. S. Mrs. Joseph Shafter, Wife of a Farmer Near Lacon, Ill.

W. J. Linn went to the home of Joseph Shafter, who resides ten miles west of Lacon, Ill., where the doctor was called to attend Mrs. Shafter, who had been ill for some time. Mrs. Shafter died. He also shot at Mr. Shafter, but missed him. Joseph Shafter is a farmer. A month ago a young man named Jack Gordon, but whose real name is W. J. Linn, and who worked as a farm hand in the neighborhood, eloped with Shafter's wife. A few days later the couple returned and that night Linn was waiting on by a band of Whitecaps, who dragged him from the house and ordered him to leave the country or suffer the consequences. He went to Peoria and a day or two later the woman followed. Shafter went to Peoria and begged his wife to come home with him. Finally Linn appeared at the Shafter home and when the door was opened he shot and killed Mrs. Shafter. A second shot aimed at the husband missed its mark. Linn was arrested a few hours later in Wyoming.

CHILD RUNS TO DEATH.

Little One Throws a Lighted Candle in a Baby Brother's Lap.

Sacred Nathan Weissman, a barber, was buried to death in his home in New York. When Mrs. Weissman left the house to do some marketing she placed an unlighted candle on the mantel and left her three children—Joseph, 4 years old; Mary, 3 years old; and Samuel, 15 months old—in the care of her husband. Joseph climbed on a chair and took the candle down. He lit it and held it in his hand and he tossed the candle away. It fell in the lap of his baby brother, who was playing on the floor. In a moment the child's tiny body was ablaze. The child's mother rushed to his aid, but it was too late. The child died.

CIGARMAKERS RETURN TO WORK.

Strike Which Was Started Nine Months Ago Is Declared Off.

The long strike of the cigar makers in New York, which started nine months ago in Kew-Forest, Schuylers factory, and involved two other large firms, has been declared at an end. The cigar makers who struck in the factories of Harburger, Homan & Co., Powell & Smith, and Hirtz & Co., 1,200 in number, have declared their strikes off, unconditionally, and have returned to work on the old terms against their strike.

BATTLES WITH EAGLE.

Powerful Bird Attacks Little Girl and Mother Beats It Off.

Mrs. John Callahan of Anderson town ship, Pa., had a fight with an eagle, which attempted to carry away her 2-year-old child. The bird attacked the child furiously and the cries of the little one at the sight of the bird were heard. Mrs. Callahan, though possessing a rifle, did not shoot but the bullet struck her child, so she got a club and ran to the rescue. The eagle let go the child and turned its attention to the parent. It flew into the woman's face and pecked at her eye and nose, but a well-directed blow from the club felled the bird and stunned it. After a moment's scrambling on the ground the eagle took to the air and sailed away. Mrs. Callahan says the bird was fully eight feet from tip to tip.

FRAUD IN CHEROKEE AFFAIRS.

Commission Reports that Discrepancies Amount to $194,000.

Evidences of extensive fraud have been found in the auditor's office of the Cherokee nation at Tahlequah. The special commission authorized by the Legislature last year to investigate the irregularities of the Cherokee auditor's office has reported to the principal chief of the Cherokee nation. The Senate spent the day reading the reports and testimony. The special commission inspected the auditor's books for the last six years and found that the national certificates paid exceeded the number issued by $194,000. The report declares that a high-handed robbery has been going on for the last five years in the auditor's office and that there is no way of determining how great the fraud is.

RESULTS OF THE ELECTIONS.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Re-Elected President.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Vice-President Elect.

MCKINLEY AND ROOSEVELT.

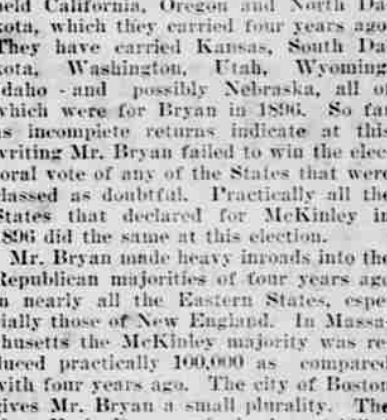

Republican National Ticket Wins by a Good Majority. Theodore Roosevelt has been elected President and Vice-President, respectively, by a majority of electoral votes larger than that given in 1896 to McKinley and Hobart. The Republican tendency throughout the nation was strong enough, apparently, to secure the election of a Congress which will be Republican in both houses. The State of New York, in spite of the strenuous efforts made to secure an overwhelming Bryan vote in New York City, has given the Republican candidates a large plurality. Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Indiana and Ohio have given a similar result, and although the Republican plurality in Massachusetts has been strikingly reduced, owing doubtless to the strength of the anti-imperialist sentiment there, it is still decisive. Maryland has had a Republican landslide similar to that of four years ago.

MARCUS A. HANNA, Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

ELECTION OF 1900.

Campaign Was Waged as Desperately as Any in the Country's History.

More than 15,000,000 citizens voted in the presidential election of 1900. The President of the United States, William McKinley, was re-elected by a large majority. The Vice-President, Theodore Roosevelt, was elected by a large majority. The Republican Party won a large majority in both houses of Congress. The election was one of the most激烈 in the history of the United States.

Important Election Features.

Bryan has 20,000 majority in Missouri. McKinley carried Ohio by fully 80,000. McKinley carried Indiana by a majority of 110,000. McKinley carried Maryland by a majority of 11,000. McKinley's plurality in New York State is 120,000.

WYOMING HAS GONE REPUBLICAN BY 2,000 MAJORITY.

The Republican majority in Indiana is about 20,000. Bryan swept while the returns came in, but not till he had been assured of defeat.

ILLINOIS WAS REPUBLICAN BY 60,000 AND 100,000 ON THE NATIONAL TICKET.

Two men were killed and three wounded during a fight between police and deputy sheriffs at a Denver polling place. Both Republicans and Democrats are surprised by the election returns, indicating McKinley's re-election by the largest majority in history.

W. C. TOWNSEND WAS CAUGHT ON A RAILROAD BRIDGE OVER LOUISVILLE, KY.

He attempted to let himself down between the ties. He became wedged and the approaching train decapitated him. A large meteor fell near Lexington, Ky.
